

TransCanada has applied for an injunction against the Unist'ot'en and help is needed sending food up to camp.

Do you have things you could donate? Do you have money to contribute to folks buying supplies? Are you going to camp and wondering what to bring?

PRESS RELEASE: TransCanada Litigation Threatens Unist'ot'en Territory

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – NOVEMBER 30 2018

An injunction application and civil litigation filed by TransCanada Coastal GasLink aims to criminalize Unist'ot'en Camp and forcibly facilitate pipeline construction across unceded Unist'ot'en territory.

Dry Goods:

chocolate & chocolate chips
flour of any kind
chickpea/channa flour
oatmeal, steel cut oats
any rice but brown
cornmeal
brown sugar, icing sugar
dried seaweed
dried noodles (especially rice noodles, no instant ramen)
nutritional yeast
dried legumes (not mixed)
split peas
quinoa
pasta (gluten and gf)
Bragg's soy sauce

kikkoman soy sauce
vinegar - rice, balsamic, & apple cider Oils - sesame, avocado, coconut, olive peanut butter, nut butter
jam
syrup, maple syrup
honey
canned milk
soy, rice, almond milk in tetra pack Nuts (No sunflower seeds, peanuts) sesame seeds
flax seed
vanilla extract

Meats:

wild meat (especially canned or dried) wild fish (especially canned or dried) any canned or preserved fish canned clams

sausage, poultry, ground meat, pepperoni
tofu

Vegetables and Fruit:

Anything long storing
Greens
Fresh herbs
Garlic
ginger
Fresh turmeric
dried or canned veg and fruit

For updated fresh produce needs, please call camp.

Dairy:

Cheese (especially hard cheese)

Tools & Misc:

Sharp knives
Educational books
sharp axes
chainsaws
ratchet set
blades for powersaws/skillsaw (7.5) screwdriver set
large pots
cast iron
snow goggles
snow pants and winter coats
warm winter gloves
warm work gloves
kitchen aprons
butcher paper
ziplock bags
stovetop pressure canner
makeup, makeup brushes
art supplies
large blocks of paper
rope
barbwire

Thank you!